Delivery Information

Delivery

All in-stock orders are shipped ground and should be received within 7-10 business days unless specified otherwise, including "Free Shipping" items. Visit our website for holiday shipping updates. Please note that all items on one order may arrive in separate packages on different days. When multiple shipping addresses are requested, each address requires a separate order (delivery charges are calculated per address). Please check all addresses carefully. Stonewall Kitchen guarantees delivery only to the addresses with which we are provided.

*For shipping rates and restrictions to Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, APO/FPO and the US Virgin Islands, please visit stonewallkitchen.com.

We regret that we're unable to ship to foreign countries and we cannot ship perishables or certain heavy items outside the contiguous 48 states.

Expedited Delivery

Expedited delivery options are available Monday-Friday for orders to the 48 contiguous states only. Saturday and Sunday are not considered delivery days. Expedited online orders must be received by 12:00 p.m. ET and are guaranteed for in-stock items only. Sorry, not all items are available for expedited delivery.

Delivery Surcharge (*)

Certain items that are oversized, heavy or require special packaging (perishables) are more costly to ship. These items have a delivery surcharge noted in the parentheses after the price of the item. Please note, this delivery surcharge is in addition to our standard delivery charges.
